

A line from Swami Sivananda

We all encounter tough times. Homeless veterans barely survive. Rising technical automation &

internal strife threaten union membership throughout the holidays. Popular committees hold conventions to which no-one comes.

Here's a sweet fan-made Chalk Animation lyric video to celebrate the struggle.

A journal entry, if I kept one

River sediment. Opposable thumbs. Only in a poem
would they not be either/or
but and.

Tincture

He
pinged
the rim
of an empty
champagne
glass

thought about
the harmonics
of loneliness.

A Game of Go(lf)

In the Royal & Abstract Science of space & quantity

it transpired

we were equally matched. That's a

therefore or a turning point. Let's go dancing, she said. & so we did.

Oviposition

Something about
territorial imperatives.
Or. The equivalence
of given words, the presence/absence of tonal hierarchy. Otherwise, why do
algorithms exist?

54.73% of it is being used as collateral for a loan from a Cayman Islands bank.

24.27% is making up 41.5% of the flotation devices used to keep a pirate catamaran seaworthy off the Horn of Africa.

The remaining 21% is concealed within lines 29-32 of Chaucer's The Tale Of The Wife Of Bath. This will be hard to find, since the passage is biodegradable &, as of this writing, 64.31% of it has already broken down through exposure to the elements.

A line from David Mamet

I've never been one to subscribe to the notion that brides posting their wedding dresses for sale online is the sincerest form of flattery. Like classic literature, like silent movie intertitles, like the changing work & sexual roles of women, retellings of famous fairy tales explore the mysteries of the human heart. Science fiction films grow out of the oral tradition of storytelling. Learn how to become more sophisticated completely without dialogue. We're facing some server issues here.

Getting ready for the World Cup

The man relies on magnetic resonance to support his weight.

A nurse takes the cane from his hands. The meniscus on his left knee

gives out. It reduces by half the number of people in the world earning less than a dollar a day.

reflections of ida lupino

for alex gildzen

The character must be flawed. Otherwise
what interest is there?
Or else. Some aspect of them. Flawless. Preferred. The both together.
